

ALADDIN

A TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS PANTOMIME

Once upon a time, there was a young boy called Aladdin who, with his brother Wishee Washee, and mother Widow Twanky, ran a laundry in Peking China.

Aladdin meets and falls in love with the Emperors daughter, Princess So Shi, but as he and his family are poor he is unable to marry her. The Princess loses Ping Pong her pet Panda and Aladdin decides to find Ping Pong to impress the Princess, but the evil Abanazar has other plans.

He pretends to be Aladdin's Uncle to win his trust and tricks Aladdin into retrieving a magic lamp from a cave. Fortunately Aladdin sees through Abanazar's plan and gets the lamp for himself, rubs it and releases the Genie inside.

The Genie grants Aladdin his wishes and he becomes very successful and wealthy. However before Aladdin can marry his love, Abanazar steals the lamp and kidnaps the princess.

Will Aladdin manage to save the day?
Will Abanazer get his just desert?
Will anybody find Ping Pong?
Come along and find out!

NOTE: All evening performances START at 7.00pm. Matinee performances START at 2.00pm.

A TRADITIONAL CHRISTMAS PANTOMIME

Postal applications Party bookings (15 and over) will be dealt with from 14th September. All applications are processed in order of receipt, so please send your form (with cheque enclosed) as soon as possible.

Tickets will go on sale to the general public at the end of September. After this we will not be able to guarantee ticket availability.

On receipt of forms we will email each contact to acknowledge the booking and confirm availability. Tickets will be printed from the Box Office system in September and posted out to groups at the start of October. Please be aware that the block booking administration is carried out by volunteers of Attic Theatre during their spare time (i.e. evenings), and not by Aberdeen Arts Centre or Aberdeen Box Office staff.

The matinees are always over subscribed so the earlier you apply the better. It would be helpful if you could give us a second choice date if at all possible. If, unfortunately, both your first and second choice dates are unavailable, we will telephone or email you to discuss alternatives.

If you have a preference as to where you would like to sit, please state this on the form, however, as bookings are dealt with in order of receipt, we cannot guarantee particular seats.

Please tear along the dotted line and send this section with your cheque to:
